Burntwood Tavern and M Italian Donate $5000 to Cleveland Clinic Children's

Funds raised with holiday gift card sales support therapeutic library of disease specific children's books

CLEVELAND, OH, March 21, 2017 – Chef Art Pour Restaurant Group (CAPRG) presented Cleveland Clinic Children's with a check for $5000 to be used at the Children's Hospital Activity Center. Funds were raised through the sale of holiday gift cards at Burntwood Tavern and M Italian. For every $50 gift card sold at these restaurants, CAPRG pledged to donate an additional $5 to Cleveland Clinic Children's, provider of world-class healthcare to young patients and their families when they need it most.

The donation will go towards funding a therapeutic library of disease specific children's books. These books are used for education and self-expression; to assist children and families cope with illness and the life changes that often accompany a new diagnosis. Patients will have the opportunity to take these books home upon discharge, to promote healing in the home environment. Additionally, books will be made available within the resource library at the Children's Hospital Activity Center.

Bret Adams, owner and founder of CAPRG, said, "It's a testament to our staff and guests that we were able to raise this funding to help children better deal with their diagnosis. We welcome the opportunity to give back to our friends and neighbors who have supported us from the start."

Jen Leonard, marketing and events manager of CAPRG, said, "We are grateful to have the opportunity to be involved with Cleveland Clinic and be a part of seeing these kids' smile. We look forward to our ongoing partnership with the Clinic that will help our guests, their children and their loved ones during a difficult time."

CAPRG consists of Burntwood Tavern and M Italian with 10 restaurants in Northeast Ohio and a new location set to open this summer in Naples, Florida.
